Message from the CEO, Kevin Potts

The game of Rugby offers young people exposure to many positive life skills; this includes the important concepts of teamwork, respect, celebrating success, building resilience in the face of defeat, learning from experience and valuing diversity.

In addition, rugby creates many life-long friendships and benefits a young person's physical and mental well-being.

The values of rugby are set out in The IRFU Spirit of Rugby Charter, to which we are all fully committed. These are our core foundations. This is what rugby offers.

The IRFU expects all participants in our sport to demonstrate and "live" these values and behaviours in all rugby related activities. These values and behaviours can only be expected if there is, at all times, a safe, inclusive, and welcoming environment in which young people can train, play and enjoy their rugby.

The welfare of young people in our game comes first, always! It is our collective duty - at Union, Branch, Club and Schools levels - to ensure we deliver on this responsibility through those directly involved with our age-grade players.

To all players, coaches, administrators, staff, and volunteers; thank you for your ongoing commitment to our great game and to its values and thank you for your commitment to developing the next generation of rugby players.

SECTION ONE

IRFU SAFEGUARDING STANDARDS

Spirit of Irish Rugby Charter

SPRIT OF RUGBY

RESPECT

For all those involved in the rugby family, the wider community and self.

Gratitude to coaches, officials, volunteers and other leaders in the game. Discipline while playing the game. Respect for the physicality of the game and commitment to the safety of the player as paramount.

INTEGRITY

Actions on and off the pitch that are open and transparent.

We aspire to always have the best interests of the player and those involved in the game, especially youth players, at heart. In rugby we aspire to do the right thing and endeavour not to be bystanders.

INCLUSIVITY

Diversity of opinion and culture means working together to be a vibrant, respectful organisation.

Rugby is a sport of choice for all, it transcends barriers and differences of race, gender, religion and sexual orientation. Players that have a positive life-long experience of the game can remain within the Irish Rugby family throughout their lives, fulfilling roles that enable them to be the best version of themselves.

A passion for the game, on and off the pitch, rugby is a source of joy for all.

Everyone has an equal right to learn, play and administer the game and should be respected for the age and stage of development that they are at; especially youth players.

EXCELLENCE

Strive to be the best that we can be.

There may be others who play better, make better decisions and perform under pressure better, but we complete each task knowing that we could not have done more for ourselves, our team, club or school; we are comfortable in the knowledge that we are doing our best.

IRFU Child Safeguarding Statement

The Irish Rugby Football Union (IRFU) provides rugby activities to young people through participation in 199 affiliated clubs and 4 Branches, through national programmes and events, including: representative panels; mini and youth coaching and competitions; squad camps; and participation programmes in schools and related youth events.

The IRFU is committed to the enjoyment of rugby by young people. It values and encourages the participation of parents, coaches and volunteers in rugby for participants under 18-years of age. The policy of the IRFU regarding safeguarding children is to respect the dignity and rights of age-grade players.

The IRFU will strive throughout its organisation and spheres of influence to promote, create and maintain safe environments for age-grade players. It will endeavour to maintain the key values of Respect, Inclusivity, Integrity, Excellence and Fun. A detailed safeguarding policy can be found here, <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/safeguarding-policy/> and the Sports Councils' Guidance should be used where the IRFU has not published specific guidelines, in particular with regard to the principles to safeguard children from harm, <https://www.sportireland.ie/ethics/safeguarding-sport> or <https://www.sportni.net/about-us/safeguarding/>

The IRFU has carried out a risk assessment for any potential harm to a child while involved in rugby. These risks were categorised under the following headings Recruitment, Club and Coaching Practices, Reporting, Complaints, Facilities, Communication and General Risk of Harm. The assessment reviewed the areas of potential risk of harm, the likelihood of the risk occurring, and gives the required policy, guidance and document links to manage these risks. The written risk assessment and the procedures for managing these risks is available on the IRFU website, <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/>

Our Child Safeguarding Statement has been developed in line with requirements of the IRFU under the Children First Act 2015 and in Northern Ireland, the Safeguarding in Sport Standards for NI. In addition to the procedures listed in our risk assessment, the following procedures are in place as part of the IRFU Safeguarding Policy and support our intention to safeguard children:

- Procedure for the safe recruitment and selection of workers and volunteers to work with children, <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/recruitment/>
- Procedure for provision of and access to child safeguarding training and information, including the identification of the occurrence of harm, <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/training/>
- Procedure for the reporting of child protection and welfare concerns to Tusla (Ireland) and Gateway (Northern Ireland) through the National Safeguarding Officer and appointed Mandated Person within IRFU: Stephen Gore, 086 6087943 / stephen.gore@irfu.ie. The National Safeguarding Officer (Mandated Person) is the Relevant Person as per Children First Act. Other staff and volunteers within the organisation may hold the role and responsibility of a Mandated Person as per Schedule 2 of the Act but have not been appointed by the IRFU and/or its affiliated clubs or organisations. They are always expected to act as a Mandated Person and when making a report in their professional capacity that involves rugby should always inform the IRFU Mandated Person that such a report has been made by them.
- Procedure for the management of allegation of abuse or misconduct against workers/volunteers towards a child availing of our service and can be found in the case management policy, <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/concerns/>

Field Code Changed

- Procedure for appointing a relevant person for the purposes of the implementation of this Child Safeguarding Statement
- Procedures to minimise risk of harm of a child have been put in place and are available in the IRFU Safeguarding Policy, <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/safeguarding-policy/>

All procedures listed are available on the IRFU website, <http://www.irishrugby.ie/safeguarding>. The IRFU Management expects those involved within club age-grade rugby to adopt and supervise the implementation of these safeguarding principles and standards. The IRFU recognises that implementation is an ongoing process. It is committed to the implementation of this Child Safeguarding Statement and accompanying safeguarding policy and procedures to keep children involved in rugby safe from harm. This will be done through the implementation of the IRFU Safeguarding Guide and safeguarding audit.

The Safeguarding Policy is included in IRFU HR procedures and in relevant club documentation, it is an essential condition for funding for the Club Support Scheme. Relevant staff have received a copy of the policy and signed adherence through the Declaration of Intent. The Child Safeguarding Statement and related safeguarding policies are available to all parents/guardians and members of the public through the IRFU website and is available on request, <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/>

The IRFU will work with the Branch Spirit of Rugby Officers on the implementation of the policy and is available to assist the Club Welfare Officers and related personnel and to deal with club queries. They can be contacted at:

- Connacht: Laura Scuffil – laura.scuffil@connachtrugby.ie
- Leinster: Billy Phelan – billy.phelan@leinsterrugby.ie
- Munster: Emily O'Leary – emilyoleary@munsterrugby.ie
- Ulster: Kerry Spence – kerry.spence@ulsterrugby.com

Club Welfare Officers have completed relevant safeguarding training. They have been supplied with ID templates for display within club grounds for the purpose of raising concerns. Guidance and templates for carrying out a risk assessment and publishing the Child Safeguarding Statement, a club action plan, an anti-bullying statement, club pavement signs and Spirit of Rugby 'Let Them Play' video clips have also been supplied for the purpose of implementing the IRFU safeguarding policy. They have also received relevant training for their role with children and young people. This Child Safeguarding Statement will be reviewed in June 2027, or as soon as practicable after there has been a material change in any matter to which the statement refers. Safeguarding Principles

The IRFU is committed to safeguarding children and, by working under the guidance of our Safeguarding Policy and procedures, our staff, both volunteers and employed, seek to create a safe environment for young people to grow and develop within the sport. The following set of principles should be adhered to:

- Importance of childhood - The importance of childhood should be understood and valued by everyone involved in age-grade rugby.
- Needs of the child - All age-grade rugby experiences should be guided by what is best for children. This means that adults should have a basic understanding of the emotional, physical and personal needs of young people.
- Integrity in relationships - Adults interacting with young people in rugby are in a position of trust and influence. They should always ensure that young people are treated with integrity and respect, and the self-esteem of young people is enhanced.
- Fair Play - All age-grade rugby should be conducted in an atmosphere of fair play. The principles of fair play should always be emphasised, and organisers should give clear guidelines regarding acceptable standards of behaviour.
- Quality atmosphere & ethos - Age-grade rugby should be conducted in a safe, positive and encouraging atmosphere.
- Competition - Competition is an essential element of sport and should be encouraged in an age-appropriate manner. A child-centred ethos will help to ensure that competition and specialisation are kept in their appropriate place.
- Equality - All young people should be valued and treated in an equitable and fair manner regardless of ability, age, gender, religion, social and ethnic background or political persuasion, as per the IRFU Charter

The Sports Councils' Safeguarding Guidance should be used where the IRFU has not published specific guidelines <https://www.sportireland.ie/ethics/safeguarding-sport> or <https://www.sportni.net/about-us/safeguarding/>

Safeguarding Objectives

- Meet the required standards for safeguarding children in Ireland
- Maintain a robust case management system and disciplinary process for rugby
- Ensure well trained and informed staff and volunteers in relation to safeguarding topics and issues
- Ensure young people and vulnerable adults are listened to, ensuring their experiences of rugby are safe and enjoyable

Compliance

- The IRFU has a Safeguarding Chair who shall be appointed on an annual basis to the Spirit of Rugby Committee with full power and authority to implement, resource and supervise compliance of this Policy and the Sports Councils' Guidance. They will be assisted by the Spirit of Rugby team, including the National Safeguarding Officer and Branch Welfare Officers
- Compliance with this Policy and the Sports Councils' Guidance will be monitored by the IRFU through the Branches and with the clubs annually, using the Club Safeguarding Guide.
- The IRFU is committed to providing personnel and assistance for courses and training dealing with compliance issues arising from this Policy.

- The IRFU will monitor compliance with and alleged breaches of this Policy and will discuss same when necessary for the benefit, protection and information of age-grade players and their parents where it is permissible and reasonable.
- The IRFU will implement its 'Case Management Policy' to review breaches of the policy and ensure child protection and welfare issues are correctly reported. It will also ensure existing disciplinary, complaints and appeals procedures of the IRFU will be regularly reviewed to accommodate the implementation and enforcement of this Code.
- The IRFU will review its Safeguarding Policy every 2-years and/or as legislative changes occur in Ireland and/or Northern Ireland
- It is the role and responsibility of every officer and member of a Branch, club and school together with the IRFU to ensure that the spirit of this policy and the IRFU Guidelines are promoted, implemented and monitored successfully.

Implementation

The IRFU expects those involved with age-grade rugby to promote and implement the components of this IRFU policy, specifically through the implementation of the Club Safeguarding Guide.

<https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/safeguarding-policy/>

The requirements in this Safeguarding Policy are expected to be complied with by all Branches and clubs (including schools) that the IRFU support. Guidelines will be published and updated to assist in the application and interpretation of these requirements. The Sports Councils' Safeguarding Guidance should be used where the IRFU has not published specific guidelines

<https://www.sportireland.ie/ethics/safeguarding-sport> or <https://www.sportni.net/about-us/safeguarding/>

All requests from the National Safeguarding Officer to adhere to, comply with or furnish evidence relating to this Code must be fulfilled promptly. This will include implementation of the Club Safeguarding Guide, key elements which are audited annually and when requested audits from Sport Ireland and Sport Northern Ireland. <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/best-practice/> (under Club Welfare Officer section)

Seasonal Safeguarding Requirements

In order to be compliant, host age-grade activities and for clubs to receive the Club Support Scheme Funding from the IRFU Clubs (and relevant bodies) must, as a minimum, achieve the following criteria under Safeguarding:

- Appoint a Club Welfare Officer to implement the IRFU Safeguarding Policy. Club Welfare Officers should be vetted and trained to SG2 standard.
- Carry out a safeguarding risk assessment and sign and publish their Child Safeguarding Statement as a result (templates provided by IRFU). These documents must be uploaded to RugbyConnect. Ensure copies can be made available to parents and coaches if requested.
- Display the CWO ID template (template supplied by IRFU)
- Complete appropriate vetting. All age-grade volunteers (e.g. coaches, manager, team assistants) that work regularly and continuously (or that their role is a necessary part of working) with young people and/or vulnerable adults must be vetted before they start. This process must be carried out through the Club Welfare Officer using RugbyConnect and includes a Declaration of Intent.

- Complete appropriate training. All coaches/volunteers should complete the necessary safeguarding training, <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/training/>

Once the fundamentals of safeguarding are in place the club should follow the rest of the Club Safeguarding Guide to ensure that they are implementing the highest possible standards for safeguarding and ensuring adherence to the IRFU Safeguarding Policy.

For further information contact the Spirit of Rugby Officer in your Branch for assistance or see <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/recruitment/>

Safeguarding Personnel

The IRFU Safeguarding Policy identifies four roles that come under the heading of 'Children's Officers' as per the Sports Councils' Guidance. These together with the necessary roles outlined in legislation are the definitions agreed upon for IRFU:

- i) 'National Safeguarding Chair' is the person appointed by the IRFU Union Committee to advise in relation to this Policy, with specific responsibility for ensuring the Spirit of Rugby Committee are informed in relation to relevant safeguarding matters
- ii) 'National Safeguarding Officer' is the person appointed by the IRFU Committee to implement the policy and decisions for Age Grade Players of the IRFU. This person will act as Designated Liaison Person, Relevant Person and the Mandated Person for the IRFU as per the relevant section of the Children First Act, Children First Guidance and Our Duty to Care, with specific responsibility for reporting concerns to the Statutory Authorities.
- iii) 'Branch Welfare Officer' is a person appointed by the IRFU to implement the directions of the National Safeguarding Officer and to follow the policy for age-grade players of the IRFU. This role will be held by the Spirit of Rugby Officer in each Branch.
- iv) 'Club Welfare Officer' is a person appointed by a club to implement the directions of the National Safeguarding Officer and Branch Welfare Officer and to act as the voice of age-grade players within clubs.
- v) Mandated persons" are people who have contact with children and/or families who, by virtue of their qualifications, training and experience, are in a key position to help protect children from harm. Mandated persons include key professionals working with children in the education, health, justice, youth and childcare sectors.

These officers operate within their respective spheres of influence at National, Branch and Club level to implement the IRFU Safeguarding Policy and to ensure compliance with this Policy and achieve the highest standards possible in relation to the Club Safeguarding Guide and other safeguarding guidance.

Working with Age-grade Players

Coaches, Volunteers and those working with Age-grade Players have a duty of care when working in clubs and schools and/or rugby related activities. They are acting 'in loco parentis'.

Those who have responsibility for age-grade players must commit to and follow the requirements of the Safeguarding Policy and should be informed about best practice as set out in related guidance documents.

While clubs are responsible for the appointment and deployment of coaches and volunteers, those working regularly and continuously with young people must be vetted and safely recruited by the IRFU before they begin a role with young people and/or vulnerable adults.

Those working with young people must:

- carry out vetting in line with current legislation through and/or in the manner directed by the National Safeguarding Officer. The Declaration of Intent must be signed by those working with young people. It is the responsibility of the staff/volunteer to be familiar with its content and ensure that all coaches/volunteers working with young people have registered on RugbyConnect and completed the necessary vetting credential.
- work with the National Safeguarding Officer without delay in relation to a risk assessment of the criminal record and convictions on file. Not all recorded offences preclude coaches from working with young people. Each assessment is on a case-by-case basis and all information will be held in conjunction with relevant Data Protection Acts and guidance.
- follow the directions of the IRFU in relation to safeguarding training. Coaches and volunteers working with young people must complete IRFU Safeguarding Training through the Spirit of Rugby Officers and/or equivalent approved safeguarding training, such as completed with another NGB or Local Councils.
- make themselves aware of safeguarding standards within this policy, including the Child Safeguarding Statement and related guidance (such as supervision, physical contact, travel and touring).

Vetting should not be seen as a stand-alone procedure and should always be done in conjunction with signed Declaration of Intent, Codes of Conduct, appropriate supervision, relevant reference checks, commitment to training and adherence to this Safeguarding Policy.

Vetting procedures and full policy can be found here, <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/recruitment/>

The Codes of Conduct must be made available to players, parents and referees <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/best-practice/> (under Club Guidance section)

Assistant coaches under 16-years of age that cannot be vetted can work with a senior coach with parental permission and having signed the Declaration of Intent.

Failure to comply with aspects of recruitment above could result in a coach/volunteer not being offered a position within the Club/Branch/Union. Good practice in management and supervision of coach/volunteer after appointment to a role is as important as vetting.

Safeguarding Guidance

Further guidance related to this Safeguarding Policy is contained within the safeguarding documentation and factsheets on the IRFU website, <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/>. The following guidance should be shared widely:

- Working with young people, <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/best-practice/>

- Supervision and safety <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/best-practice/> (under Coach Practices section)
- Physical contact <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/best-practice/> (under Coach Practices section)
- Overnight trip and tours IRFU <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/best-practice/> (under Club Guidance section)
- Communication and staying safer online <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/best-practice/> (under Club Guidance & Player Welfare sections). With the increased use of technology in rugby it is important for clubs to be aware of guidance in relation to the use of images of age-grade players <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/best-practice/> (under Club Guidance section)
- Player welfare, returning from injury <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/medical/> - determining when an injured age-grade player is ready to play again (always seek profession medical advice) and be reasonable in demands on the age-grade players' time, energy and enthusiasm
- Player welfare, nutrition and supplementation - to protect the health and well-being of age-grade players and to ensure they thrive within a safe and fun environment, IRFU request that all those working with age-grade players do not promote, condone or use sports supplements contrary to the IRFU Guidelines and Recommendations, "Sports Supplements and Young Rugby Players", and remain vigilant to the health and safety of young players. They should also promote the importance of caring for a person's positive mental health and take active measures to minimise psychological stress, burnout and drop out of age-grade players <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/best-practice/> (under Player Welfare section) and <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/health-wellbeing/>

Parents

Involving parents is an important step in creating and maintaining a child-centred environment. The positive encouragement and support of your child can't be over emphasised. How you behave and what you say will have huge impact on how your child experiences the game. For further information see <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/parents-guardians/>

Bullying

Bullying is defined by the Department of Education and Skills as unwanted negative behaviour, verbal, psychological or physical, conducted by an individual or group against another person (or persons), and which is repeated over time. It is similarly defined by the Northern Ireland Anti-Bullying Alliance as repetitive, intentional hurting of one person or group by another person or group, where the relationship involves an imbalance of power. It can happen face to face or online.

Bullying should always be considered in conjunction with the Codes of Conduct <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/best-practice/> (under Club Guidance section)

Poor practice should always be tackled early, warnings should be given and in the case of age-grade players especially, there should be an opportunity to correct the behaviour. Persistent poor practice may escalate into bullying if allowed to go unchecked. Incidents must be dealt with immediately and should not be tolerated. More extreme forms of bullying may be reported as concerns to Statutory Authorities.

It is the responsibility of the club to deal with bullying behaviour at the outset. Each club should take a stance on bullying and the anti-bullying statement should be visible to all <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/best-practice/> (under Club Welfare Officer section)

For further information in relation to online bullying, social media guidance and staying safer online go to <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/best-practice/> (under Club Guidance & Player Welfare sections) and the Sport Ireland training module <https://apps.ineqe.com/apps/stayingsafeonline/introduction.php>

Children's Discipline

Children should be helped to become responsible about the decisions and choices they make within sport, particularly when they are likely to make a difference between playing fairly and unfairly. There should be no place for fighting, over-aggressive or dangerous behaviour in sport. The Code of Conduct should be enforced with opportunities for players to demonstrate a change in behaviour <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/young-people/> (under Your Rugby Responsibilities section)

While this Code advocates for the rights of age-grade players this should not be done at the expense of their responsibility towards the team, the club and/or themselves.

Conclusion

The IRFU Child Safeguarding Statement and related IRFU safeguarding standards are implemented through the Club Safeguarding Guide <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/best-practice/> (under Club Welfare Officer section)

This is the framework for creating and maintaining a child-centered approach within the club. The IRFU will work with its constituent bodies to ensure the highest standards are achieved for age-grade players.

The way we work with age-grade players, how we behave around them and our attitudes towards them will contribute to the way young people feel about themselves.

SECTION TWO SAFEGUARDING CONCERNS

Establishing a Child Protection Concern

Should an age-grade player be at risk of harm, it is the duty of those in a position of responsibility to take the necessary steps to minimise and/or help to remove the risk and to ensure that all procedures are followed in accordance with statutory guidelines.

<https://www.tusla.ie/children-first/children-first-guidance-and-legislation/>

<https://www.health-ni.gov.uk/sites/default/files/publications/health/Co-operating-to-Safeguard-Children-and-Young-People.pdf>

If you believe a child is at risk the concern should be brought to the attention of the Club Welfare Officer who will implement the IRFU Case Management Process. This will establish if the concern is likely to meet the threshold for reporting to Statutory Authorities or is a concern that may not be in line with IRFU's safeguarding policy.

The online reporting tool will begin the IRFU Case Management Process. Ideally this will be completed by the Club Welfare Officer, but it is available to anyone who has a concern about an age-grade player in rugby.

If you have a concern that needs immediate reporting to the Statutory Authorities you can make contact as follows:

Ireland: <http://www.tusla.ie/get-in-touch/duty-social-work-teams/> or use the Tusla reporting portal Tusla Portal

Northern Ireland: If you think a child is in immediate danger contact the PSNI (999) or <https://www.nidirect.gov.uk/publications/gateway-service-teams-contact-details>

Adults working with young people are not expected to be experts in identifying abuse. However, to fulfil our duty of care it is necessary to know how to forward a concern that meets reasonable grounds for concern and how to respond to a child who raises a concern, for further details see

Protecting Our Players <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/concerns/> (under Documentation section)

Categories of abuse are outlined in Children First (ROI) and Co-operating to Safeguard Children and Young People in Northern Ireland (NI). For further details and Statutory guidelines, go to:

<https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/concerns/>

<http://www.tusla.ie/children-first>

<https://www.nidirect.gov.uk/articles/reporting-child-abuse-and-neglect>

Training should be completed by all coaches and volunteers working with children and young people <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/training/>

Additional training can be found at, <https://childrenfirstuniversal.hseland.ie/> and <https://www.sportlearningni.com/>

Sometimes, it may be necessary for a club to implement a disciplinary process in relation to safeguarding. For further information see Safeguarding Disciplinary Process <https://www.irishrugby.ie/playing-the-game/spirit-of-rugby/safeguarding/concerns/> (under Documentation section)

Responding to a Child Protection Concern

Field Code Changed

Route of a Child Protection Concern

ALL concerns should be referred to the Branch Welfare Officer (Spirit of Rugby Officer)

Are you concerned about 'harm' of a child?

- Consult the Club Welfare Officer, and Branch Welfare Officer if needed, who will advise if 'Reasonable Grounds for Concern' apply and/or what route your concern should take
- The IRFU may contact Tusla Child & Family Agency (CFA) or An Garda Síochána and ask for an "informal consultancy" or consult with the Child Protection in Sport Unit (NSPCC) in Northern Ireland for further advice
- When reporting to Statutory Authorities, follow the statutory reporting process as per guidance and legislation through the Club Welfare Officer and National Safeguarding Officer
- Co-operate with Statutory Authorities investigations
- On completion of Statutory Authorities investigations, the IRFU may initiate the safeguarding disciplinary process
- The IRFU will advise and assist on procedures regarding media and general enquiries
- A coach/volunteer against whom an allegation of abuse has been made will be informed by the CWO that this is not an accusation and that the procedures being undertaken are in accordance with Statutory guidelines, that is, a claim that something may be wrong with the child and/or environment and needs clarification.

Concerns Not Meeting Thresholds

Some concerns may not meet the criteria of 'harm' or constitute 'reasonable grounds for concern' that would require making a report to the Statutory Authorities, however the complaint may require a response. In such cases all adults have a responsibility to protect age-grade players from harm.

Should you witness or receive information that leads you to believe that a serious breach of this Safeguarding Policy has occurred, you should bring the matter to the attention of the Club Welfare Officer, Branch Welfare Officer and/or National Safeguarding Officer. The following guidelines should be adhered to:

- You are not to discuss the matter with persons not already involved, unless required to assist with an investigation of the matter
- The IRFU Case Management process will be implemented
- The online safeguarding incident report form should be completed and submitted to the National Safeguarding Officer (Mandated Person)
- The Case Management Panel will inform club/organisation of the process, usually through the Branch Welfare Officer
- The Club Welfare Officer will, in some cases, deal with the concern using a safeguarding disciplinary panel to decide if Codes of Conduct have been breached
- The National Safeguarding Officer will deal with issues between clubs and inform Branch and Clubs of the concern(s) and action taken where appropriate.

Please note: Should an individual not be happy with the initial outcome of the process they may refer this issue to the National Safeguarding Officer.

Information is based on guidelines from Children First (Ireland) and Co-operating to Safeguard Children & Young People in Northern Ireland (NI). All concerns should be dealt with using the IRFU Case Management Process which takes account of both of these guidance documents and relevant legislation. Clubs or Branches should not carry out their own internal investigations until directed by the IRFU case management panel.
